

Fiscal year 2017 is upon us and with it comes the promise of great growth and change. As part of our growth we are excited to launch our inaugural bi-monthly Procurement newsletter. Our goal is to share helpful hints, tips and news that will support simple and effective purchasing practices for everyone on campus. Thank you for taking the time to read our newsletter and we hope that you find it to be an informative and useful tool.

Warmest Regards,
Amber R. Brannigan
Interim Director of Procurement & Strategic Sourcing

NAEP Young Professional Award

The National Association of Educational Procurement (NAEP) is a nationally accredited association dedicated to serving higher education purchasing offices. Each year they work to identify the best of nations young professionals and honor them with The Young Professional in Procurement Award for their outstanding efforts in procurement. This year we were honored to have not one but two amazing team members receive the award. To be considered you must have been active members of NAEP for at least one year and have made great strides and contributions to the education procurement industry.

Nominees must have fewer than 10 years of experience in the education procurement industry and be 40 years old or less. Congratulations to Houcine Chraibi & Sara Luther who received awards in San Antonio, Texas, in May.

Meet Your Buyer

Hollis Anderson knows his scientific equipment. He has worked at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln for nearly 44 years, procuring high dollar electronic and scientific products for numerous departments on campus. He also manages scientific supply contracts for University laboratories.

Outside of his Sourcing role, Hollis enjoys biking, gardening, snow skiing and keeping busy with handyman projects. Black raspberry ice cream is a favorite. Hollis highly recommends downtown Lincoln's Vincenzo's Ristorante and their amazing Salmon Soto!
